This legend was written many years ago but it is popular nowadays. Robin Hood and his merry men took money from the rich and gave it to the poor. There are many stories about them. Here is one of them.

The Sheriff of Nottingham hated Robin Hood. «How can I catch him?» he thought. «I must think. -Ah! He is the best bowman in the land. I'll send out word that there will be shooting on a day in June, with fair play for the bowmen. The best bowman will get a gold arrow from me. Robin Hood will come and shoot because I have promised that there will be fair play. And then I'll take him!»

Robin Hood will come and shoot because I have promised that there will be fair play. And then I'll take him!»

One hundred and forty strong young men went with Robin. The Sheriff of Nottingham saw only three of Robin's men: Little John, Much the miller's son, and Will Scarlet. They shot well, better than any of the bowmen from other places. But the best was Robin Hood. Every arrow from his bow hit the mark. The gold arrow was his, and he took it from the sheriff with many thanks.

The sheriff held up his hand to his swordsmen, and they ran to take Robin. But then they stopped. More than a hundred bowmen, with arrows ready, stood out from among the people. «Don't you remember your promise?» Robin said to the sheriff. «Under my greenwood tree you promised to be my friend.»
